It was the debut film for Sen, who had previously appeared in films such as Bombay Talkies (2004) and Run (2007). Synopsis Mirch is a story of two cousins, Preeti and Nikki, and their respective love lives. Preeti (Konkona Sen Sharma) lives with her mother (Poonam Dhillon) and is married to Saurav (Rajat Kapoor). Saurav lives with his mother (Supriya Pathak) and sister Suneela (Supriya Pathak). Suneela is in love with Amol (Ali Asgar), who is married to Jaya (Smita Jaykar). Preeti is in love with Kamini (Raima Sen) but is not able to express it to her, as Kamini is married to Vikram (Inder Kumar), who is an alcoholic. Kamini has feelings for Vatsay (Sachin Ghogre) and is in a relationship with him. Vatsay is an antagonist to all the people around him. Preeti and Kamini have no place to stay, as Vikram wants to sell his house, which belongs to Preeti's father, and wants the profits from the sale to be transferred to his daughter-in-law, Kamini. Kamini is worried that this will affect her marriage. However, Preeti convinces Kamini to stay at her home, as she herself does not want to leave the place where she has lived since childhood. Kamini decides to invite Vatsay to her husband's home for a party. However, Vikram is present at the party and refuses to let Vatsay into the house. Kamini tells Vikram that she wants to go to her mother's home. The rest of the people are surprised and cannot understand why Vikram wants to go to Kamini's home. They also do not understand why Kamini is going home and what she wants. After hearing Kamini's explanation of what she has been trying to do, Vikram gets angry. He tells his mother that Kamini wants to go home, but Kamini says that her mother does not want to let her go home. Vikram takes a gun and shoots his mother in the leg. Then he asks Kamini if she wants to return home, or if she wants to be with him. Preeti, Saurav, Suneela and Amol come running and try to stop Vikram, 82157476af
